Secretary Baker left to-day for Cleveland to wind up some personal affairs, but will return to Washington on Tuesday. Before leaving he conferred with Secretary Daniels concerning the situation at Tampico, where 100 Americans are located and where considerable ill feeling is reported on the part of Carranza garrisons.

This hostility, it is said in despatches which reached the State Department to-day, has been due partly to the fact that no copy of the communication addressed by Carranza to all his Generals and other officials in Mexico concerning the purposes of the American expedition had Baker Confers With Daniels.
